AT A GLANCE

BEAT THE SUMMER HEAT
WITH ENGAGING ACTIVITY

Bhavyata Foundation recognized this need and introduced a Folk Art Course in Bal Kalyan Nagari, Mankhurd. We taught Warli Art from 1st to 5th Std and Phad Art from 6th to 10th Std. The course spanned five days, during which we taught the children the basics shapes, motifs, and action figures. On the final day, the children were asked to make a big picture by using their creativity and incorporating all they had learned during the course.

COUNSELING FOR DESTITUTE CHILDREN

The visit to Bal Kalyan Nagari provided insight into children's daily lives under the facility's care. The interactive and engaging sessions offered a range of activities and games that kept the children involved and interested.

COUNSELLING

Counselling sessions for girls by our experts to manage their emotions and navigate challenges for life.

VALUE EDUCATION

Using storytelling, motivational talks, and value education will help instil important life skills and values in children, which can benefit them throughout their lives.

WARLI ART CAMP

The aim of the course was to increase focus and build self-confidence in kids. help individuals process their feelings and gain insight into their own thoughts and behaviour.

PRESCHOOL EDUCATION AT BMC SCHOOLS

Surveys for Preparatory Phase for New Admissions at Mumbai Balwadis

Teachers from five BMC-run preschools in slums surveyed parents to understand why their children were not enrolled, then developed strategies such as meetings, campaigns, and sharing benefits to promote admissions. The surveys provided valuable insights and helped improve early childhood education in slum areas.

SAMVARDHAN - BREED PRESERVATION

Dry Nutritional Feed for Dangi Cows

During the scorching heat, the Bhavyata Foundation's provision of dry nutritional feed for Dangi cows in Adsare village, Igatpuri, was a welcome relief for the 300 cows and their 17 owners. This initiative demonstrates the Foundation's commitment to improving the well-being of both bovines and the local community.
